ERNEST CONGLETON IN FATAL ACCIDENT

Girl Is Killed and Local Boy
Among Others Injured When
Auto Hits Buggy

Ernest Congleton, one of Richmond's best known young men, a son of Lee Congleton, was injured in an auto accident on the Lexington and Richmond pike late Sunday. A maid employed at the Leonard Hotel, was killed in the smash-up. The Herald tells of the accident as follows:

One woman was killed, another woman seriously injured and four other persons bruised and shaken up in a collision between an automobile and a horse and buggy at the intersection of the Richmond and Walnut Hill roads Sunday afternoon soon after 5:30 o'clock.

The dead woman is: Rena Horn, 24 years old, maid at the Leonard Hotel.

The injured are:

Gertrude Wells, 19 years old, day clerk at the Leonard Hotel; knocked unconscious bruised and shocked.

Ernest Congleton, farmer, driver of the automobile, bruised and shocked.

C. D. Brewster, lumberman, shaken up.

W. O. McConnell, salesman for American Tobacco Company, cut and shaken.

Leslie Gibbons, 12 years old, badly shaken.

Congleton, Brewster and McConnell were on their way from Lexington to the home of Mr. Congleton's father on the Jack's Creek pike in a Ford coupe, and girls and the boy were driving in a buggy into the Richmond road from the Walnut Hill pike when the accident occurred.

The automobile struck the front wheel of the buggy, throwing the occupants out, detaching the horse from the harness and causing the car to swerve into the front door of the store of Curt Lavin, wrecking it.

It was dark at the time of the accident. According to Mr. Congleton, he was driving about 20 miles an hour. He sounded his horn fifty feet from the intersection of the roads and could not see the buggy at the time, he said. It drove into the front of the car and he could turn neither to the right or left to avoid the collision, he declared Sunday night.

"It was an unavoidable accident," he said. "I cannot understand why they did not see the lights of my car and hear the horn."

Leslie Gibbons was sitting between the two girls on the seat, driving, he said.

The dead woman had been employed at the hotel as maid for about two weeks. Miss Wells is related to Mrs. Jessie Gibbons, who operates the Leonard, and is the mother of Leslie Gibbons.

A passing automobile brought Miss Wells to Lexington to receive medical aid. She was taken to her room at the Leonard. The body of Miss Horn was brought to the city soon after the accident.

The accident occurred within sight of the home of Samuel Downing, Jr., where first aid was administered. None of the persons there saw the accident, it was said.

While the extent of his injuries will not be known until after an examination by Dr. Louis Frank. Attending physicians say that his back was wrenching and he was injured internally. He was driving a small sedan, the top of which was demolished. Dr. South is president of the State Board of Health, and the husband of Mrs. Christine Bradley South.

TRAGIC FATE OF J. W. MARTIN MONDAY

Missed His Footing While Crossing Track Ahead of Train and Was Ground To Pieces

Monday at noon at the intersection of the L. & N. and L. & A. railroads, north of Main street, Richmond, J. W. Martin, section foreman on the L. & N. started across the track of the main line in front of approaching passenger train No. 37, from Cincinnati to New Orleans, missed his footing and was ground to pieces.

Martin, who was 54 years of age, had been an employee of the company for 22 years. This is said to have been the first accident which had befallen him in that period of railway service. He leaves a widow, a resident of Richmond.

The accident took place in the presence of a number of track men who were leaving for their dinner. Martin had given instructions regarding the work for the remainder of the day and was preparing to go to his noonday meal. He started across the track which workmen state, he would have cleared easily before the arrival of the train, had his foot not slipped. He was precipitated to the track in front of the speeding train, the engineer not having any time in which to even check the momentum.

Martin's body was terribly mangled. Coroner Muncy was summoned. Coroner Muncy was taken to the latter's establishment, West Main street, where it will be prepared for burial.

JAMES PARKS IS NABBED BY POLICE

James Parks, colored, made the mistake of his life when he returned to Richmond after an absence of several months and misjudged the police facilities. He had no sooner hit the city than Patrolman Wm. Maupin was on his trail. Parks, who is said to be wanted on a larceny charge, appeared in the eastern part of the city. So did the officer. The latter saw Parks and Parks saw the policeman. There was a chase, the officer running his quarry into a small building, which was broken open and the fugitive taken into custody. He will be given a hearing later. It is claimed that Parks has been in the habit of taking things from automobiles parked about the city.

Walls Blown Out By Bombs

Belfast, Dec. 13—A dispatch received here from Cork says that the fire hose was cut, rendering useless the efforts of the firemen. Two acres soon became a furnace. The front walls of houses were blown out with bombs. The great block between Maylor street and Fish street still was burning Sunday afternoon the fire eating its way backwards.

The Lord Mayor of Cork has telephoned the Lord Mayor of Dublin stating that the fire brigade at Cork is unable to cope with the outbreak and begging for help. It is possible that a Dublin fire brigade will be sent by special train.

MORGAN EVANS BUYS BREWER FARM

The J. F. Brewer farm near Foxton, was sold last week by that hustling firm, the Freeman Realty Company, to Mr. J. Morgan Evans. This farm is a splendid piece of land and all figure that Mr. Evans secured a bargain. It contains 130 acres of good blue grass land. There was a big crowd on hand and Col. Jesse Cobb, the famous auctioneer, was at his best. One bidder was here from as far away as Lexington, and he told the real estate men that he had seen the advertisement of this farm in the Richmond Daily Register and drove over to see if he couldn't pick up a real bargain but Morgan Evans beat him to it. However, Messrs. Dunbar and Caldwell, of the Freeman Company, say they are mighty well pleased with the way the Daily Register brings 'em to their sales from this and many other counties.

BEN POWELL ISSUES HIS ANNOUNCEMENT

Ben R. Powell, Tax Commissioner of Madison county for the past four years, authorizes the Daily Register to announce him as a candidate for renomination and re-election, subject to the action of the Democratic party. To say that Mr. Powell is one of the best known and most popular officials in the county is expressing nothing but the plain, simple and unvarnished truth. If he has an enemy no one knows it, and he has proven in other races that he has made that he is one of the strongest runners in the county today, having lead the ticket in the last county primary. His friends say that his record in charge of the tax commissioner's office during the past four years has been so good that they feel he is entitled to an endorsement from the people. He is very familiar with such work, having served as deputy assessor for three years before being elected Tax Commissioner.

Mr. Wilcox has been engaged in the distribution of newspapers for some time and is a well known resident of Richmond. Friends do not fear but that he will prove eminently satisfactory to his new employers and are gratified to learn of his opportunity with such a concern.

SOMEbody PLEASE TELL THE BUTCHERS

Chicago, Dec. 13—Wholesale prices of fresh meat cuts, both beef and pork, reached the low levels of the pre-war period with the close of business last week, Armour & Co., announced Sunday in a public statement. Beef prices, the last to be adjusted, declined to the lowest levels of the year, says the statement.

Lower prices for live stock which have resulted from declines in feedstuffs and from excessive receipts of stock in all markets have had marked influence on the wholesale selling prices of all meats, resulting in a level of prices that ruled in 1914, in many instances.

Fresh beef carcasses were offered to the retail trade at prices that averaged between 14 and 15 cents a pound, a price almost as low as in 1914. Light pork loins, the price of which is the index of all fresh meat cuts, sold for 21 cents as compared with the pre-war price of 22 to 23 1-2 cents.

Lard was offered at 6 cents a pound under the price of April 1, 1917, which was 20.37 cents. The average price of sweet pickled and cured pork products was 17 cents, that being three cents under the price of April, 1917.

"The market value of hides, 14 1-2 cents in the aggregate of the ten grades, has dropped 6 cents a pound from the normal price that existed in 1917, and is at this time one cent a pound lower than the price that obtained in 1912.

Subnormal value of by-products from cattle of which hides is typical, have had a tendency to hold up the price of fresh beef carcasses and had the market for the by-products held reasonably stiff. The beef meat prices would have effected further declines by this time."

Hignite is used to the open, and his confinement is telling on him. He is an inveterate smoker, however, and seems to be enjoying additional pleasure in his pipe, his one inseparable companion.

COULD USE MORE FIRE HOSE HERE

While there has been no application for new hose for the Richmond fire department and which will be provided within a very short time, even more hose is needed, according to Chief Benj. Daugherty, of the fire department. He stated that at the recent fire, more than 1,000 additional feet of hose could have been used to advantage. There was this amount on hand, however, its inferior quality from long use would not admit of its being pressed into service.

The coats and boots ordered by members of the fire committee will be used especially by handlers of the hose. The nozzle men will have gloves as well as the other raiment and their work will not be rendered so disastrous to their clothing. The firemen have been complaining especially as a result of this effect upon their wearing apparel, when called out to fight a fire on Sunday night.

FACTS ABOUT TANLAC ARE GIVEN TO PUBLIC

Special Representative Tells Why
It Has Become Most Talked-of Medicine in the World Today.

NO GREAT MYSTERY ABOUT IT, HE SAYS

Merit Alone Has Confirmed It In the Minds of the People All Over the American Continent.

W. B. Logan, special representative in the Southern States for Tanlac, the medicine that has created such a sensation all over the United States and Canada, gives some highly interesting facts about Tanlac and the remarkable results achieved by it.

"Contrary to popular opinion," he stated, "there is no great mystery about Tanlac, except in so far the chemistry of the human body itself and what it does with substances taken into it, is a mystery. Some of the ingredients of Tanlac have been known and used as medicines for centuries. Others are of more recent discovery, but every one of them is of recognized therapeutic value and used by the medical profession everywhere. Tanlac is simply a combining of these medicinal elements in a way hitherto unknown and which brings out their curative and reconstructive powers to a most remarkable degree. Briefly, it relieves irritation of the stomach, strengthens the digestive and assimilating organs, builds up and revitalizes the whole system, and gives the body new powers of resistance and strength. Gratifying gains in weight are not uncommon, especially where a person has suffered from undernourishment brought on by dyspepsia, indigestion, illness, operation or other causes.

"Naturally, these remarkable achievements have spread the fame of Tanlac to all quarters of the continent, and the demand for it has necessitated working the laboratories night and day.

"The tremendous popularity of Tanlac grows steadily instead of diminishing and can be explained in only one way—merit. Its results are more permanent than hitherto believed possible. Thousands of persons who took it when it was first introduced five years ago report they are still enjoying excellent health and millions of American homes are now using Tanlac as the family medicine after having first tried it thoroughly."

"It is a demonstrated fact in medical science that the stomach is the starting point of most ills

Liddell—Davis.

The following from the Courier-Journal will be of interest to the friends of bride and groom here and in this section: The wedding of Miss Bethia Richardson Liddell and Mr. L. H. Davis, of Paint Lick, was solemnized quietly at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clarence R. Didwiddie, and Mr. Dinwiddie in Audobon Park. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Ernest Akin, before an improvised altar of palms and ferns. The house was decorated in palms and pink chrysanthemums. The bride wore her travelling costume of midnight blue, with hat to match. Four little boys who held the ribbons to form an aisle for the entrance of the bride were Masters Thomas Wagers, of Richmond, Harry C. Woodard, Henry Bryan and David Castleman. Miss Marie Castleman, who carried the ring, wore a dress of cream net over pink silk. Miss Jacqueline Liddell Wagers, of Richmond, the flower girl, wore a white frock. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception. Mrs. V. M. Liddell, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black net over black satin. Mrs. Dinwiddie wore black satin. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left to spend the winter in Florida.

Many Richmond friends have good wishes for the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bullitt McCoun, of Frankfort, who was born at the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington Thursday. Mrs. McCoun was Miss Daisy Moore Porter, of Lexington, who frequently visits her aunt, Mrs. T. S. Hagan, of this city.

FEDERAL TAX ON
MADISON ESTATES

Uncle Sam Derives Benefit From Properties But Is In No Hurry To Collect the Revenue

W. T. Mills, federal inheritance tax man, has been in the city for a few days looking after the government's interest in several big estates which must pay the federal tax. There are a number of them to be given consideration later. A small per cent of tax goes to the government where the estate exceeds $50,000 in valuation. One per cent of tax is collectible by the government after this figure is reached, and two per cent after the next $100,000 has been reached. The per cent of tax continues to increase with the increase in the sum total of the valuation of the property left.

Those in charge of the estates being investigated, have been apprised of the fact that they are expected to make a report to the government regarding the valuation of the property which, Mr. Mills said, they are doing.

Uncle Sam, while attentive, does not hurry in such cases and Mr. Mills said that it would perhaps be a year before any tax would be collected from the recently bequeathed estates.

"Madison county is rich in the way of big estates," said Mr. Mills, "and I enjoy coming here. There is never any difficulty. I merely come to look after the affairs of the government, and about all I have to do is to acquaint those in charge of the estates with the law pertaining to the government tax and they see to it that it is paid."

Henry, in charge of the roller and other machinery for some time, will depart for Danville with the machinery.

SWIFT'S PRODUCE REVIEW

Fresh eggs are available in larger quantities, indicating that production has commenced. A continued increase in receipts is expected with a tendency toward lower prices.

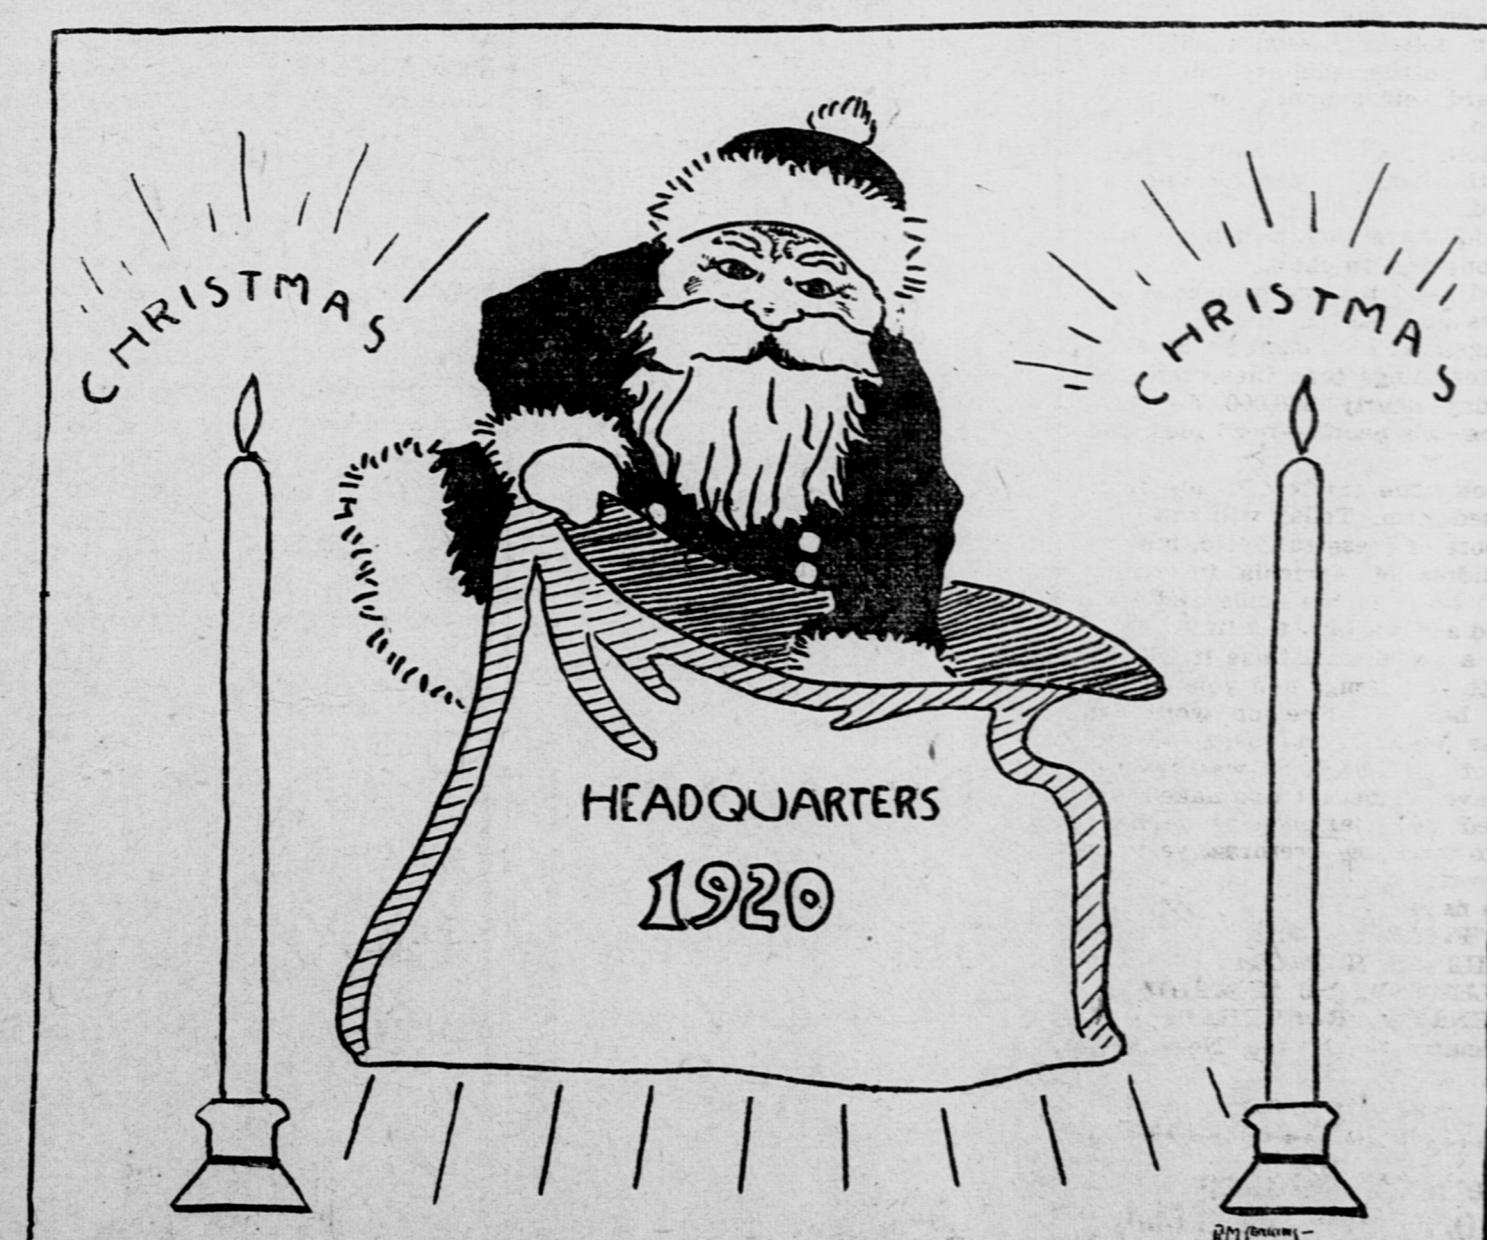

Butter has ruled lower on the leading markets of the country and prices paid for butterfat have been reduced. The supply of fresh butter is larger than for the corresponding week last year.

Receipts of poultry are not as heavy as expected, but this has been offset by a lighter demand in the consuming centers. Surplus dressed poultry has been placed in storage for later use, and this has had a stabilizing effect on the market.

PROMINENT MEN IN XMAS APPEAL FOR ARMENIANS

Former President Taft Leads in Eloquent Plea for Support of Near East Relief.

To save the lives of 800,000 people in Armenia and other western Asian countries and to care for more than 250,000 orphans who are homeless there former President William Howard Taft, Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, and Alexander J. Hemphill, the New York banker, as members of the Executive Committee of Near East Relief, the former American Committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, have issued a Christmas appeal for continued support of this organization and its work.

Near East Relief is now operating under a government charter and is practically alone in the western Asian field, the Red Cross several months ago having announced its withdrawal.

The Christmas letter, a classic of its kind, is as follows:

"Dear Friend—Another little child has shrivelled up and died.

"The mother, creeping back, gaunt and cold, from the desert, has put down the thin little bones with those that strew the road and has sunk beside them, never to rise again.

"Only a little child and a mother out on the bleak Armenian road! But what is that vision hovering there and what is that voice the cold winds bear to the ears of our souls—I was hungry and ye gave me no meat; I was naked and ye clothed me not."

"Today—yes, today—while we are preparing our gifts for Christmas, many more of these little children—not a hundred nor a thousand, but 250,000 of them—are still wandering uncared for and alone in that dead land, their wanzened skins clinging in fear to their rattling bones, and they are crying out with gasping breath, 'I am hungry, I am hungry!' And the voice of one who watches us as we prepare gifts to celebrate his birthday comes again to the ears of our souls—"I am hungry! I am hungry!! I am hungry!!!"

"Now, the children and the mothers in Armenia are dreading the winter. Just human remnants they are, not protected many of them, from the elements by even the dignity of rags. The most favored have merely shredded rags. How shall we sing our Christmas songs and laugh and light the candles, and give beautiful gifts while that pleading voice cries in the ears of our souls, 'I am naked and cold—naked and cold?'

"But we can feed and clothe these perishing ones—some of them—before it is too late. Herbert Hoover has enlisted from the Caucasus. It is impossible that the loss of 200,000 lives can at this day be prevented, but the remaining 500,000 can possibly be saved. They need not starve and freeze and die if we will save them. In the name of him, who saw the multitude as sheep not having a shepherd and was moved with compassion toward them, who exclaimed when his disciples would turn them away, 'They need not depart, give ye them to eat! open your heart and purse and give to these Christians whom he loves, who are suffering for him and with whom he is suffering. They need not die. Give ye them to eat.'

"Fifteen dollars a month will provide food, clothes, shelter and education toward self support for one orphan child.

"Ten dollars a month will provide food, clothes and shelter for one orphan child.

"Five dollars a month will provide food for one orphan child.

"He fed 5,000 hungry people in the wilderness and said to his followers, 'The things that I do shall ye do also, and greater things than these shall ye do.' Today nearly 800,000 destitute Armenians—his people—need food and clothing.

"He took little children in his arms and blessed them. Today will you take one or more of these sad, cold, hungry little children of Armenia into your arms and heart in his name and give them food and warmth and life?

"What a joyful Christmas it will be when with your songs and your laughter you hear a voice of wondrous sweetness speaking to you, 'O, ye blessed of my Father, I was hungry and ye gave me meat; I was naked and ye clothed me; inasmuch as ye have done it to these, my brethren, ye have done it to me.'

"In his name,
Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM H. TAFT,
ALEXANDER J. HEMPHILL,
HENRY MORGENTHAU.

NATIONWIDE FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE

American Red Cross Will Have Health Centers in All Parts of United States.

The American Red Cross has launched upon a nation wide campaign of fighting disease and physical defect among the American people. A new and unique health institution has come into being as the result of several months' study by the Red Cross Health Service Department at National Headquarters.

Officials in charge of the department predict that before long this new health activity will be in actual operation all over the country, and that the sign—"American Red Cross Health Center" will become as familiar to the people everywhere as are now the signs of the telegraph companies.

Busy Long Before War.

The interest of the American Red Cross in the fight against disease is not, however, of recent origin. Long before the war the organization began this health service through its medical units in disaster relief work and its department of Town and County Nursing. During the war and following the armistice thousands of American Red Cross officials have been fighting disease in the war-stricken countries. At the same time tens of thousands of local Red Cross officials have been engaged in home fighting disease, notably during the influenza epidemics.

The American Red Cross has determined that all this valuable experience in health service abroad and at home should not go to waste. So long as there are a half a million people dying yearly in this country from preventable diseases, and so long as more than one-third of the American children and younger people are victims of physical defects, the Red Cross recognizes the urgent need for continued Red Cross health service at home.

How Organization Works.

The Red Cross Health Center is governed by business principles, applies business methods, and, in its more simple form, can be established and conducted by lay people.

It proceeds upon the demonstrated fact that health is a commodity that can be bought and sold like brooms and soap. Therefore, it establishes itself in a storefront in the principal business section of the community. It displays its goods in the form of attractive health exhibits in its show windows. It advertises constantly and extensively. And it uses every business and social device to attract customers.

The Red Cross Health Center is of service to the sick in that it gives out reliable and complete information about existing clinics, hospitals, sanatoriums and other institutions for the sick and the defective; about available nurses, both trained and practical; about when to consult a physician and why to shun the quack and his nostrums.

Teaching Disease Prevention.

The Red Cross Health Center is, however, of even greater service to the well. It teaches people how to prevent sickness and disease. This is done in many interesting and attractive ways—first of all, by the distribution of popular health literature and through health lectures illustrated with lantern slides or with health motion picture films. Then special exhibits are given, one after the other, on various health subjects. Practical demonstrations are made; also health playlets by children to interest and instruct themselves and their elders. Classes are organized in personal hygiene, home care of the sick, first aid and in food selection and preparation. Health clubs, both for younger and older people, are formed; also Little Mothers' Leagues. Nutrition and growth clinics are conducted for children.

Already more than a hundred of these Red Cross Health Centers are in actual operation throughout the country. Many of them also conduct medical clinics, but the one chief, outstanding feature of the American Red Cross Health Center is its health education service which teaches well people how to keep well.

FRENCH PRAISE FOR OUR RED CROSS WORK

Lauding the work accomplished by American philanthropy for war-torn France, Andre Tardieu, former high commissioner from that nation to the United States, in a recent article widely commented on throughout the French press, says:

"The American Red Cross has accomplished a work which calls for the heartfelt gratitude of every true Frenchman. In 1913 this great relief organization spent in behalf of France nearly $7,000,000 francs, and in 1919 its expenditures on charitable projects in our country attained the tremendous total of 171,000,000. It has recently turned over to the French relief organizations huge stocks of supplies whose value must be counted in the hundreds of thousands of francs.

"Fifteen million American boys and girls, banded together in the Junior Red Cross of America, are back of a movement to establish the closest ties between themselves and France's younger generation through the charitable works they have financed, and are now carrying out among our little war sufferers.

"The bonds of friendship between France and America is cemented with mutual admiration, respect and gratitude."

SILVER CREEK BRIDGE PROVES DANGEROUS SPOT

While the work of improvement is going on at the Silver Creek bridge a mile this side of Berea, Ernest Hall, driver for the Western Petroleum Co., will be glad when the work is finished, for he reports he came near meeting his fate there while returning to Richmond from Berea with a large truck. He says that owing to the narrow road approaches to the bridge, when a truck wheel slips, there will be a 20-foot fall unless one is very careful. When his truck began to slide, he managed to stop it, and secured the assistance of farmers and teams to pull him out.

WHAT WOMEN CAN DO TO CUT COST OF LIVING HERE

NOTED WRITER TELLS SOME WHOLESOME FACTS ABOUT NATION'S EXTRAVAGANCE.

BUYERS ARE NOW ROUSING

Remedy is to Work and Save, Increase Production and Get Money's Worth.

In his comment on current events, Richard Spillane, in Commerce and Finance, has the following to say concerning the work of the women of America in their organized campaign for thrift and saving and against high prices:

"A wall is going up from the women these days owing to the poor quality of goods they get in the department stores and specialty shops and the low grade of workmanship.

"Stuff that ordinarily would not be handled by high class, reputable establishments now is put on the counters and a price is put on it that is little short of robbery. Sales persons are just as contemptuous and supercilious in their treatment of persons who are shocked over the cheap, poorly made articles put on sale at outrageously high prices as if it were a favor to permit a person to buy anything these times at any price.

"The truth of the matter seems to be that in most staple articles, either textiles or furniture or anything else, there is carelessness and profiteering or worse all along the line. Labor is slouched, and manufacturers skimp in every possible way.

"The clothing people are particular offenders. They may not be responsible for the poorer quality of cloths, but they are responsible for poor workmanship on garments. They charge the poor quality of cloths to the mill men, and then excuse themselves for the poor quality of cloth to the mill saying labor is out of hand, and the employer who protests against anything in danger of having a strike or a new demand for increased pay, so they have to bear the ills they meet and try to wait in patience for time to adjust conditions.

"But if you are a friend, the clothing manufacturer will tell you in confidence he is having a very profitable year, the best in fact of his whole business career. Honesty in manufacturing and merchandising seems to be at a pronounced discount, more of a discount than the dollar is today.

"Here's something worth while. Four hundred thousand women of Pennsylvania, members of organizations affiliated with the National Federation of Women's Clubs, have pledged themselves to earn economy in household and other expenses in the first three months of the new year.

"Every woman is to keep a detailed account of her daily expenses and study for every reasonable reduction in expenditures. Every woman will strive to conserve food, fuel and clothes and eliminate waste of material and goods and labor. Every woman will keep track of every cent that is saved. Every woman will invest every dollar saved in Government Savings Stamps paying 4.27 per cent interest and report to her state and city chairman as to the saving.

"That's business. More power to those good women, and all honor to them.

"If the men of the nation would follow suit many of the ills from which we are suffering would end.

"There is a specific for the woes of the work. It is simple and known to all men, but few accept it.

"What is it? Simply this: Work and save. We do a little of each, and never was this so true as today."

Commerce and Finance also makes the following editorial comment:

"In a letter to Mrs. W. H. Winslow, president of the Chicago Woman's Clubs, Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick asks the women not to forget that there is still an important responsibility upon them as women to continue war-time conservation and exercise their influence and their self-control to stem the tide of extravagance and help to avert a national crisis. We hope this appeal will be heeded. The women's clubs of the United States exert a wide influence. If they will use it to make economy the fashion they will do a great service."

Money invested now in Liberty Bonds, which are a little below par on the market, is very much better than buying expensive clothing, furniture, jewelry and luxuries of all kinds, that command prices away above their actual worth.

A PHONETIC ANSWER.

"Children," said the teacher, "I want you to tell me something about Pawtucket. It is part of our geography lesson today. What is important about it?"

"Teacher, I know," Johnny stood up, "Treasury Savings Certificates."

"How do you make that out, Johnny?" she asked.

"Cause I went to the bank with my dad and the man said, 'I have a fine investment to offer in a Treasury Savings Certificate,' and Pawtucket."

JACKSON'S FINE TOBACCO

Commonwealth's Attorney Godfrey Rader, was here from Jackson county Monday with a hand or two of some of the prettiest tobacco you ever saw. It was raised by him and his son-in-law, Mr. Jones, on their farm near Bond, Jackson county. They will undoubtedly sell it over the Richmond market and if it doesn't bring the top figure everyone who has seen it is going to be greatly surprised. It has the right color for the first grade and plenty of weight too.

Large Duck Farm on Long Island.
the Crested White and the Black East India. The common or so-called "puddle" duck is kept on many farms in middle West and South and is generally of small size, a poor layer, and an undesirable type of market duck. Excepting the Muscovy, all of our economic breeds of ducks are said to have originated from the Mallard, or common wild duck.

GOOD POULTRY HINTS

Keep the nests clean; provide one nest for every four hens. Gather the eggs twice daily. Keep the eggs in a cool, dry room or cellar. Market the eggs at least twice a week. Purchase well-matured pullets rather than hens.

CHANGE IN BREED OF FOWLS

Breeder Ought to Remember That New Variety May Have to Be Fed in Different Way.

If a breeder who has always kept one kind of hens suddenly changes to another breed, he ought to remember that the new variety may have to be fed and cared for in quite a different way. That will call for study as to the best kinds of food, best methods of housing and many other things.

DUCK RAISING ON INCREASE

Long Island, N. Y., Contains Large Number of Commercial Farms—There Are Three Classes.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

According to the census of 1910 there were 2,906,525 ducks in the United States, valued at $1,567,164, showing a decrease in number of nearly 40 per cent as compared with 1900. It should be stated, however, that the animal census of 1900 was taken June 1, and that of 1910 April 15, which fact would considerably reduce the above percentage, although only fowls three months old or over were reported on only 7.9 per cent of the farms in the country and are most numerous in the following states, arranged according to their production: Iowa, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Tennessee, Indiana, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Ohio, the number ranging from about 225,000 head in Iowa to 106,000 in Ohio. New York is the only one of these states which shows an increase in the number of ducks, while all the others show a marked decrease. Long Island, N. Y., contains a number of large commercial duck farms which apparently are quite successful. It would appear, therefore, that commercial duck farms are increasing somewhat, while the production of ducks on general farms as a side issue is decreasing, especially in the middle West.

There are 11 standard breeds of ducks which have been admitted to the American standard of perfection. These may be divided into three classes: (1) the meat class, including the Pekin, Aylesbury, Muscovy, Rouen, Cayuga, Buff, and Swedish; (2) the egg class, which includes the Indian Runner; and (3) the ornamental class, composed of the Call,

You want a Battery that fits

"You're right. You can't put a short, fat battery into a long slim box in your car. Then you want a battery with terminals that will shake hands like old acquaintances with your car's wiring terminals.

"But the main thing is to give you a battery with the right capacity to work in harmony with your car's electrical system. Your cutting-in-speed counts—that's the speed at which your generator begins to do business—and the number of amperes it feeds into the battery. Those are just some of the conditions your battery must work under. What it all means is that you want a battery of the right capacity to digest the current fed into it and to handle its work without strain.

"We have EXIDE batteries in all sizes and type to replace batteries of all makes. But we won't sell a battery if your old one is repairable. No matter what its make, if its plates are still sound enough, we'll rejuvenate and guarantee it."

If your battery needs recharging, phone 428—we call for and deliver your battery. We also have rental batteries for use while yours are being recharged or repaired.
